

The Columbiana County Educational Service Center is offering four 1 day training sessions for individuals with a bachelor's degree from an accredited college/university to obtain a substitute teacher license (you are only required to attend one of the training dates listed).

If you have obtained your degree in education and have completed your student teaching, you are not required to attend a training session to receive a substitute teacher license.

Included in each training session is information in regards to BCI&I and FBI Background checks, How to Apply for your Substitute Teacher License, What to expect as a Substitute Teacher, and much more.

If you have any questions, please contact Traci Patterson at tpatterson@ccesc.k12.oh.us
